CLINFORCE, LLC

CLINICAL TRIALS RESOURCE SOLUTIONS:

For more than two decades, ClinForce has provided effective solutions to meet the needs of pharmaceutical, biotechnology and device companies. With experience and expertise in all Phases of clinical trials, and across all therapeutic areas, we offer flexible, customized resource solutions to help our clients effectively and efficiently get their products to market.

Among the nation's most respected providers of resource solutions in the clinical research industry, we have successfully provided Functional Outsourcing Services to companies that have come to rely on and trust in our expertise.

A DIFFERENT APPROACH:

We differentiate ourselves by focusing on the unique requirements of each client's resource and outsourcing needs. Whether that need is for a dedicated project team, a functional team to provide services across a portfolio of clinical studies, or for staff augmentation of the client's own internal department, our ultimate success is built upon the proven ability to identify and attract industry-experienced professionals across all clinical research disciplines.

No other provider of clinical trials resource solutions is backed by seasoned, knowledgeable recruiting and staffing resources as powerful as ClinForce. The strength of our recruiting resources has helped us develop an extensive network of talented, experienced clinical research and clinical data and analytical science professionals. This network, combined with a focused and unique understanding of the clinical research process, allows us to offer the highest quality of service to our clients.

Industry-experienced managers ensure that our clinical, data and analytical service teams meet our clients' expectations and project objectives with the highest degree of professionalism and scientific integrity.

MARKETS SERVED:

We have successfully provided resource solutions to our clients throughout the pharmaceutical, biotechnology, medical device and diagnostics industries. Our capabilities also include the provision of clinical research services in Western Europe.

PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Contract Staffing Services

Experienced, qualified professionals working under your direction to supplement your departmental personnel or project teams. Conversion from contractor to direct hire may be an option.

Executive Search and Direct Hire Services

Experienced, talented professionals screened against your specifications and referred to you for direct hire as regular employees of your organization.

Functional (Hybrid)

Outsourcing Services

Teams of professionals providing general or project-dedicated services, recruited to meet your specifications. We can provide the personnel management and leadership while you retain project management responsibilities, or ClinForce can assume study management responsibilities as well.
