PARAGON BIOMEDICAL

CLIENT CENTRIC CLINICAL TRIALS DELIVER THE BEST RESULTS:

Paragon Biomedical is an international Contract Research Organization (CRO) with headquarters in Irvine, California, and offices in Marlow, UK, Warsaw, Poland, and Kerala, India. Paragon specializes in the management of international Phase I-IV clinical trials in a wide range of therapeutic areas. Our first step with every clinical trial is to discover your goals. It's a client-centric discipline we've built our culture around and a communicative strategy that allows us the freedom to serve our customers in an extraordinary way. We are large enough to manage any clinical trial, yet agile enough to deliver leading edge, customized clinical solutions. It's an approach that we've discovered produces the best processes and the best results.

OUR PERFORMANCE LEADS TO YOUR PEACE OF MIND:

Paragon Biomedical has delivered clinical trial services for nearly 20 years with a focus on instilling and inspiring confidence in our customers through our performance. We are experienced CRO professionals who understand that consistent testing, reliable data, and dependable results contribute to your ability to deliver trustworthy medicines to market.

Paragon Biomedical understands that our industry continues to change and to embrace new business models, new technology and new ways of doing things. We also understand that now more than ever, you need a dependable, knowledgeable CRO partner who you can truly rely upon to help you navigate these rapid transitions and dynamic landscapes. We want you to rely on us to provide you with proactive solutions and to guide you through changes and challenges.

At Paragon Biomedical, we embrace technology, and use our customized systems and processes to keep your study running as smoothly and efficiently as possible. At the same time we understand that the technology is only a tool that must be managed and supported by a reliable infrastructure of people and resources. We are about delivering optimal project performance that leads to your complete confidence, giving you peace of mind.
